

Day of the Lord

Music: Luke Wood & Caleb Culver; Lyrics: Luke Wood

Intro C Am F Am

Am G Dm

Those who have ears to hear be silent and listen
The Day of the Lord is near and coming soon
It's a Day of wrath and a Day of trouble
The Day of Trumpet blasts and battle cry

Intro C Am F Am

Am G Dm

Those who have ears to hear be silent and listen
While they say peace and safety destruction comes
He's opposed to everything that's evil
And the Lord will be King over all the earth

F F/E Dm F F/E Dm F F/E Dm
Neither gold nor silver will be able to deliver on the Day of His wrath

Intro C Am F Am

Am G Dm

Those who have ears to hear be silent and listen
Seek the Lord while He may be found
In that Day men will hide their faces
When once again He arises and shakes the earth

Intro C Am F Am

Am G Dm

Those who have ears to hear be silent and listen
Who is this coming up with garments stained red?
The Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David
He's gonna open the scroll and bring about the end

Neither gold nor silver will be able to deliver on the Day of His wrath

Am G F
And the Mighty One with His Kingdom will come

C G/B F
The Son of Man on the clouds of heaven
Upon the Throne of David He will reign
His kingdom rule will endure forever

Am G F G#
He's about to shout, He's about to roar

Am G F G#
It's in righteousness, that He judges and makes war