

Faithful Affliction

Music and Lyrics: Luke Wood

F Bb/D Gm F/A Bb
By Your grace, I will not be moved, but I will be consumed by the fire in Your gaze
In Your flame, I will be transformed, that love would shine like gold, that's refined inside my soul

F Bb/D
Your hand of discipline has become my faithful affliction
Gm F/A Bb
Where before i went astray, now I keep Your word
Your hand of kindness leads me to this humble surrender
Your gentleness will make me great

I'll follow wisdom through the fire and storm
The piercing of my heart is the restoring of my soul
I'll follow wisdom through the fire and storm
For the testing of my faith is the restoring of my soul
